WE TRAVEL TOGETHER WE LEARN TOGETHER

We teach our Children.....

“ Values of Co-operation and Coordination In this challenging & competitive WORLD ”

OUR PHILOSOPHY

Built on a foundation of Trust , Love, Joy, Listening and caring for each child, MIS is committed to provide much more than mere transmission of information and skills acquired through compartmentalised syllabi. True education begins with knowing and understanding the child. At MIS the child and the adults are both learners. Together they weave a world of sharing, discovering & constructing new hopes and new vistas. To begin with, the learning environment at MIS is defined by creating a culture that permits learners both young and old, to build enduring relationships with themselves and the world around them. In the competitive world of today, education is much more than learning and examination with emphasis on Personality Development.

WHY MIS ?

- ❖ We intend to provide the children flexibility in Learning.
- ❖ Allowing self-development by nurturing creativity.
- ❖ Following-up Child's interest and extend their learning.
- ❖ Enough opportunities to develop the skills and confidence.
- ❖ Allowing the children to use their own initiative with guidance from well trained staff.

OUR MAIN CURRICULUM

We believe in a curriculum that includes all the studies, which are necessary for the all-round development of the body and soul of the individual. These studies can be brought under the broad heads of physical, cultural, aesthetics, classics, language, religion, science & technology. Our intention is to incorporate the best learning practices drawn from the National Curriculum Framework and the CBSE.

PRE-SCHOOL CURRICULUM

School readiness is a primary objective of pre-school. Pre-school teachers have an expansive knowledge of all facets of early childhood development and design a curriculum that makes a difference. Establishing broad-based learning goals provides a framework for lesson plans and individualized assessment strategies. Coordinating goals with age-appropriate content ensures that pre-school children will have the best opportunity for success.

A FEW PRE-SCHOOL GOALS

Encouraging the development of fine and gross motor skills in pre-school children is an essential goal for pre-school teachers. Pre-school children need to be able to grasp and manoeuvre a pencil before they're ready to go to kindergarten.

SOCIAL AND INTERPERSONAL GOALS

Developing the social and interpersonal skills of pre-school children is an important goal, referred to as social competence, social and interpersonal skills enable pre-school children to communicate effectively with their peers and function successfully in a school setting.

COGNITIVE GOALS

Pre-school is an ideal time to stimulate cognitive development and help pre-school children gain basic competencies. Pre-school teachers infuse learning goals into their lesson plans on a daily basis. Repetition of these skills helps pre-school children feel confident as they go on to kindergarten. Cognitive goals incite an excitement for learning and help pre-school children become proficient in simple literacy, problem-solving and other basic skills.

LANGUAGE GOALS

Pre-school teachers emphasize language development as the main goal. Language development brings learning to life for pre-school children. As they develop an understanding of words, sounds, letters and concepts, the ability to communicate and ask questions is paramount. Emphasis is laid on the development of vocabulary.

FACILITIES

The school in addition to the present infrastructure is going to have an extensive campus at par with international standards. Spacious classrooms equipped with multi-media hardware and software, well equipped science laboratories, Computer and Language laboratory, Multi-purpose auditorium, Activity rooms, an elaborate sports infrastructure, on-line class room studio for conducting classes during emergencies, all to ensure that the child will have the best facilities to support the academic programme.

We aim at completing the entire teaching-learning process of every child at school itself, without the burden of running to tuition classes after the school hours. Academic & sports programme will be supported with latest methodology and training programmes by qualified teachers/ trained coaches. This is in line with our goal of promoting excellence in academic, sports, and co-curricular activities.
